

2019 Civil War Weekend Living History School Day
Event Guidelines and Admission Procedure Info
Friday, November 22, 2019

- Gates open at 9am. Plan to arrive a little early to park and organize your groups for entry. There is a lot to do and see between scheduled events so make the most of your time here at Liendo. Try to visit all of the event areas and speak with the living historians to get the most out of your day.
- The entrance to Liendo will be marked with flags on either side. Please use google maps for accurate directions: 38653 Wyatt Chapel Rd, Hempstead, TX 77445. Parking will be directed to maintain organization.
- There will be separate booths/lines for cash, credit and tickets purchased in advance. The ticket booths will be clearly marked to make it easy for you to find the right line.
- No personal checks will be accepted at the gates. School checks will be accepted at the cash or credit lines.
- Civil War Weekend is an outdoor event and takes place rain or shine. Dress comfortably and appropriately for the weather. This is a large event covering a lot of ground so come prepared to do some walking.
- Liendo is a working cattle ranch. All resident livestock are moved outside of event areas to make room for you. We ask that you do not tease our animals or approach any livestock in pens. Remember, this is their home. Some livestock will be part of the event such as goats, horses or calves. These animals are domesticated but they are still animals. Do not approach or touch any animals without the permission of their owners.
- The entire event takes place on natural ground and in a rural setting. This means you will find things like cattle manure, fire ants and grass burrs. We spend several weeks leading up to the event treating for fire ants but, unfortunately, in our setting it is impossible to completely rid the property of them. Please be aware of these things and try to avoid them. Cow "patties" are harmless but messy if stepped in. We recommend wearing shoes that you don't mind getting dirty.

- Please take the time to tour all areas and speak to the living historians (See the attached schedule)
- Chaperones must ALWAYS remain with their students.
- We expect courtesy from guests toward our event staff and volunteers who have donated their time to provide you with this educational opportunity.
- ALWAYS keep safety in mind. No climbing on trees or fences. Follow the instructions of event staff and living historians for your safety and the safety of others.
- Food vendors will be on site (See attached food menu). Outside food is allowed, but not recommended, due to the amount of walking involved and distance from the parking area to the main event area.
- First aid services will be located at the information booth throughout the day. It is centrally located near the food court for your convenience and provided by volunteer medical professionals. Mobile first aid units will also be monitoring various areas of the event to assist, as needed. Look for black hats with the blue "Star of Life" emblem.
- Have a great time and learn as much as you can!
